

Conférence EUROCLIO 2016 à Belfast

Se souvenir du passé - Héritage

mercredi 3 février 2016

L'APHG est membre d'EUROCLIO \(European Association of History Educators\). La 23^e conférence annuelle de cette grande organisation professionnelle internationale, regroupant des enseignant(e)s issu(e)s de 48 pays, se tiendra à Belfast, du 19 au 24 mars. Notre collègue [Caroline Morel \[1\]](#) y représentera l'association.

Societies which have experienced conflict and reached a peace accord have difficulty in moving from “negative” to “positive” peace. Often remembering and commemorating the difficult past presents particular challenges in the reconciliation process for governments, civil society and history educators. Northern Ireland is no exception to this. This conference will take place close to Easter, 2016. In the spring and summer of that year two important events are being commemorated locally, the Easter Rising and the first day of the Battle of the Somme, both of which, subsequently, have helped shape cultural and political attitudes in Northern Ireland.

Voir en ligne le site de la 23^e Conférence annuelle d'EUROCLIO

En savoir + : télécharger le programme en pièce jointe.

Notes

[1] Commission Europe. Professeur d'Histoire-Géographie, section binationale Esabac au Lycée Jean Perrin, Lyon et Trésorière de la Régionale APHG de Lyon.